Step Right Up, Folks ... You Won't Want To Miss This One!

Yes, our McLean Area Branch Used Book Sale is almost here! Dozens of branch members have collected books and media from approximately 500 donors and sorted these items into approximately 1,600 boxes. We've already earned more than $200 for the books we've culled and more than $200 from sorter pre-sale purchases. This is wonderful news!

Looks like all that's left is the BIG WEEK-END, Sept. 18-21. The McLean

Community Center is the place to be. There will be new pricing, the ability to accept credit cards, a new floor plan in the Children's/Media

Room, a new sale banner at the corner of Dolley Madison Blvd. and Old Dominion Dr., new AAUW Funds and scholarship publicity, more students to help with restocking and heavy lifting, plus hospitality fit for royalty!

The only other ingredient we need for a great sale is lots of member/spouse/friend VOLUNTEERS. There's a job for everyone! Please contact Mary Ellen Weber (the.webers@verizon.net, 703/790-5550), to help set up on Thursday, help clean up

September Book Sale Results and Victorian Parlour Play at First Branch Event

Ann Mazur

If the above two items don't sound related, you will be pleased to learn that the Victorian parlour play will be directed by Ann Mazur, McLean Area Branch's 2013-14 American Fellow. Also attending the meeting will be the scholarship winners from Washington Trinity University, George Mason University, and Marymount University who also receive support through the book sale efforts. Who knows who will benefit from the work of the 2014 Used Book Sale? Time will tell. What is known is that it will be successful as usual. Thank you to all.

President's Corner

September starts us off and running with a bang. WRONG! Many branch members have been on the go all summer long in preparation for our branch's 2014-15 events and activities. Book sale folks (that is ALL of us) have the sorting and boxing under control. Now all branch members need to volunteer for our sale weekend, September 18-21. Every small amount of time is a big help. Please email or phone Mary Ellen Weber to sign on (703/790-5550 the.webers@verizon.net).

Program VP's Sandy Sieber and Diane Alden, along with their committee, have lined up a boatload of events for 2014-15. We hope each member makes an effort to attend and bring a friend. Let's share with others the educational and fun activities for which our branch is known. You'll definitely want to include our September 28 Sunday afternoon book sale celebration and Victorian Parlour Play, the latter organized by an AAUW Fellow whose work was supported with funds from our branch's American endowment.

Believe it or not, one event has already taken place. On Oct. 9, our branch is again partnering with the League of Women Voters to sponsor a Candidate Meet and Greet, this one at the McLean Community Center. Pat Nelson-Douvelis and Mary Lou Melley have been working tirelessly on this project. In fact, Mary Lou even appeared on Channel 10, Fairfax County Public Access TV, to talk about AAUW's role. If you missed Mary Lou's August 18 interview, you can see a recording of the program on YouTube (<http://youtube/V4iPcH-ZGFw>), minutes 15-28. Thank you, Mary Lou!

Speaking of thank-you's, no two people deserve thanks more than our 2013-14 Co-presidents Ginger MacEwen and Linda Regan. Ginger, Linda, book sale co-chairs Betsy Reddaway and Betsy Schroeder, and so many branch leaders worked very hard to lay a solid foundation for our 2014-15 year. Thank you all.

Be sure to pick up your new branch directory in our Used Book Sale "office" at the McLean Community Center to have a list of this year's members and leaders. In addition to newly elected officers Sandy Sieber, Diane Alden, Betsy Schroeder, and Mary Anne Graham, we think you'll find some pleasant surprises. Margie Broderick has agreed to chair hospitality, Judy Page has agreed to be our branch's STEM coordinator, and new member Deborah DeMasi has agreed to co-chair AAUW Funds.

If all this news has persuaded you that our branch steams along year round and doesn't simply launch in September, you are finally RIGHT! Hop aboard.

Peggy and Nancy

From the Editor

The McLean Area Branch News is published September, November, February, April, and June. A two-page update, NewsBits, is published in October, December-January (combined), March, and May. Articles are due the 20th of the month preceding each issue. Articles should be in final form and identified as being for the newsletter. Guidelines for your articles are welcome as are suggestions for the newsletter.

Please send your articles for the October newsletter by Sept. 20.

McLean Area Branch Newsletter

Change Coming

This year we are going to try something different with the branch newsletter. A newsletter will still be produced for nine months during the active membership year. However, every other month the newsletter will be smaller, two pages to be exact. This smaller newsletter will have the full calendar for the month, a presidents' message, and short articles on events happening during the month. The full newsletter will be issued for September, November, February, April, and June and the shortened version will be issued for October, December-January, March, and May.

Over the last decade we have added ways to communicate news to branch members, such as email messages and branch website postings. So, I suggested to the board that we try to lighten the work load involved in producing the newsletter. The board agreed to try it for this year before considering a permanent change.

As the year progresses, please communicate ideas or opinions on the newsletter to me or to a branch board member.

How to Receive a Paper Copy of the Vision

The AAUW of Virginia Vision, the state newsletter, is issued three times a year: fall, winter/spring, and summer. With the fall 2014 issue, you will notice a new email service providing the Vision online to everyone with an email address registered with AAUW on the Membership Services Database (MSD). We encourage you to help AAUW of Virginia to save money by accepting the Vision via email. In that way you can read it online, print it, or download it and save it to your computer. The link will arrive in your email boxes via the new AAUW email service called Salsa.

In addition, the Vision (both past and current) is always available on the AAUW of Virginia website (<http://aauw-va.aauw.net>).

The Vision will automatically be postal-mailed to branch members who do not have an email address registered with AAUW on the MSD.

If you wish to receive the Vision in print copy via postal mail, you may fill out and submit a simple online form at this link: <http://bit.ly/T6xnT9>. You may also submit the form from the state website at <http://aauw-va.aauw.net>. Once you have submitted the form, you will receive paper copies of the Vision via postal mail.

Please submit the form by September 20 if you wish to receive a print copy of the Fall 2014 Vision.

Northern District Meeting Oct. 18

Be sure to attend "The Ups (and Downs) of Electing Women" at the Northern District Meeting Oct. 18 featuring a panel discussion with current and former elected women officials. Come join members from the 12 Northern District branches Oct. 18 at 1 p.m. at the Burke Center Library!

Manassas Park Councilmember Jeanette Rishell and former House of Delegates member Margi Vanderhye will discuss their experiences getting elected (and defeated), and AAUW Public Policy staff member Melissa Jackowski will bring us the latest statistics on women in elections at local, state, and national levels.

Hope to see everyone there!

Ann Mazur and the Victorian Theatrical Society at the University of Virginia will present “Not a Man in the House: A Comedy in Two Acts,” a parlour theatrical written by S. Jennie Smith and published in 1897 in Chicago. The Victorian parlour play demonstrates the importance of theatre and acting in the everyday life and domestic spaces of women.

Ann Mazur, graduated from the University of Virginia this spring with a doctoral degree in English literature and is currently revising her dissertation into a book manuscript. Mazur’s project recovers the Victorian parlour play. The overlooked parlour play occupied a literary marketplace dominated by women, most frequently the authors and the intended actors. Her research contextualizes home theatre practices within scholarship about the Victorian public theatre, domestic space, and emergent Victorian psychology of acting. In her spare time Mazur managed to teach more than 500 yoga classes and to prepare herself to run in the Nike Women’s Half Marathon in Washington D.C. She finished third out of 15,000 runners. She is delighted to come to McLean to give back through a performance with the Victorian Theatrical Society.

The September branch event will be held in the Rehearsal Hall of the McLean Community Center, on Sunday September 28 at 2:30 p.m.

AAUW McLean Area Branch offers its sincere thanks to the businesses and organizations who are supporting our 45th (!) Used Book Sale: The McLean Community Center for our sale site; SunTrust East Vienna Branch for our storage/sorting site; Discover Books (www.discoverbooks.com) for reselling, redistributing, and recycling our culled and unsold books; and EnviroSolutions, Inc. (www.esiwaste.com) for a recycling dumpster for our many empty boxes. We are honored to have so much help for our AAUW Funds and local scholarship fundraising.

A Reminder Why We're Here

AAUW's mission consists of advancing equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy, and research.

Our principles for action include the economic, social and physical well being of all persons; the right to privacy and freedom from violence; affirmative action to improve diversity; global interdependence.

The biennial action priorities include supporting a strong system of public education including promotion of STEM education; achievement of economic self-sufficiency for all women including pay equity; guarantee of equality, individual rights and social justice for a diverse society. AAUW recently asked its members for comments on the proposed renewed set of principles. Each member will have an opportunity in 2015 to vote for the final version.

Meanwhile, it's all about elections this fall

On August 18, I appeared as public policy chair of our branch on the television program Inside Scoop on Fairfax Public Access Channel 10. The theme of the program was to highlight Get Out The Vote (GOTV) efforts that our local organizations are pursuing. In addition, we also discussed obstacles to voting. I was interviewed along with members from the League of Women Voters, the Coalition of Pacific Asian Voters, AARP, and Zeta Phi Beta Sorority. *

A League of Women Voters member had previously approached our branch leaders with an invitation to co-sponsor a candidate 'Meet and Greet'. During the past month arrangements were completed (see accompanying article). The event will be held on Thursday Oct. 9, 7 to 9 p.m., at the McLean Community Center.

It's My Vote. I will be heard. This is the rallying cry from the AAUW Action Fund and its Get Out the Vote (GOTV) effort. AAUW members are urged to become informed about the issues and actively promote – Get Out the Vote.

Around the state of Virginia

On Aug. 19 a special election was held to elect a representative for the 48th district in the House of Delegates. The area includes some parts of North Arlington and McLean. Rip Sullivan, Democrat of McLean, won over Dave Foster, Republican from Arlington, approximately 62 percent to 38 percent. This leaves the make-up of the House 38 Democrats to 62 Republicans.

Meanwhile, state Republican leaders plan to call the House and Senate back into session in September to debate Medicaid expansions. The decision shows that Republicans are willing to discuss expanding Medicaid as long as the matter is divorced from the state budget. Disagreement over Medicaid led to a months-long budget standoff that threatened to trigger a government shutdown July 1. Senate Democrats and three moderate Republicans agreed to pass a budget that did not expand the health care program.

Remember: Thursday evening, Oct. 9, McLean Community Center.

*There is a link to the program, but it is also available through You Tube Inside Scoop Fairfax 8/18/14.

Hear Them In Person! Nine Candidates Running for Congress!

Our branch is co-sponsoring a "Meet and Greet" event featuring candidates running for Congress for the 8th and 10th Congressional Districts. We are working with the League of Women Voters, AARP, and the Coalition of American Pacific Asians of Northern Virginia, and other organizations. The "Meet and Greet" will be held Thursday, October 9 from 7 to 9 p.m. at the McLean Community Center.

You will have the chance to hear each of the candidates speak for three minutes at the beginning and end. Then they will respond to written questions – from you – that may be directed to specific candidates. A member of the League of Women Voters will conduct the program.

You will meet Micah Edmond (R), Don Beyer (D), Jeffrey Carson (Libertarian), Gerry Blais (Independent Green), and Gwendolyn Beck (Independent) who hope to represent the 8th Congressional District.

For the 10th Congressional District, meet John Foust (D), William Redpath (Libertarian), Dianne Blais (Independent Green), and Brad Eickholt (Independent). As of August 22 Republican Barbara Comstock has not responded.

Bring your neighbors! It's up to voters – us – to elect new representatives to replace Frank Wolf (10th Congressional District) and Jim Moran (8th Congressional District). Or, come early to help and wear something AAUW-teal!

Branch Boosts STEM

The McLean Area Branch has a special interest in encouraging young women and girls to pursue educational opportunities related to STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math). Our activities include STEMtastics, support for the Kent Gardens Elementary School Science Fair, a STEM Excellence Award, and High School Achievement Awards in Math and Science.

The McLean Area Branch partnered with counselors at McLean, Langley, and Marshall High Schools to award Science and Math Achievement Awards to six female students finishing their junior year. Each award, which is funded through the branch's annual book sale, consists of a certificate and a check for $100 for the honoree.

The criteria for the awards include a demonstrated record of overall academic success, as well as a distinguished record of achievement in either math or science. Career center counselors at the schools managed the process of selecting the students.

The June 2014 newsletter included articles on our STEM Excellence Award recipient and the High School achievement awards recipients from McLean High School. The Langley and Marshall High School Achievement Awards in Math and Science are described on the right. A complete article on our branch's STEM activities, written by Judy Page, appears on the branch website, <http://www.mclean-va.aauw.net>.

Recipients of the 2014 McLean AAUW achievement awards at Langley High School are Maddie Shaw, left, and Rachel Wu, right. Maddie, who received the Science Achievement Award, credits her teachers for helping to develop her interest in chemistry and physics and hopes to earn a doctorate in chemical engineering. Rachel, who was recognized with the Math Achievement Award, has found that helping others as a peer math tutor keeps her committed to challenging herself in math. She has participated in math contests such as the Junior Math League, the Fairfax County Math League, and the American Math Competition.

AAUW Funds In Action

Did you know that in 1920, the Association of Collegiate Alumnae (the predecessor to AAUW) helped raise money to purchase a gram of radium for Marie Curie? Please refer to an article taken from the March 15, 2013, Issue on Education entitled “When Marie Curie Needed Radium, We Obligated,” by Suzanne Gould regarding Fellowships and Grants. It explains how to this day, we have the “Marie Curie Fellowship.” The Marie Curie Fellowship awarded its first fellowship in 1963. It exists today “to support a French or American woman studying chemistry, physics, or radiology.”

One may ask why bring this information forward at this time. First of all, we, as members of the AAUW McLean Area Branch are in the midst of preparing and launching a used book sale to raise funds in support of women furthering their efforts in education, research, and/or community action, and more. The time and energy that is being put into this project speak volumes to the efforts of branch members. Thank you! Thank you for taking the time out of your own life to accomplish this great mission of AAUW: “Advances equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy, and research.”

And now, let’s consider recent recipients of the McLean Area (VA) Branch AAUW Funds.

FUND 4319

2013-14: Precious Chindime—Career Development

Precious Chindime is pursuing a master’s degree in public policy in order to advocate internationally for women and girls. After witnessing poverty and domestic violence as a child, she dedicated her life to women’s issues including sex trafficking, genital mutilation, education, and systems that uphold the subjugation of women. She has promoted equity as a founder of an organization that aims to empower vulnerable women and children.

FUNDS 4319 and 4267

2014-15: Lynchburg Beacon of Hope—Community Action

AAUW’s grant will support the Beacon of Hope Future Centers at two Lynchburg high schools as well as the college prep curriculum at three middle schools. The Future Centers hope to achieve the completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by all seniors, outreach to middle schools, student visits to post-secondary programs, standardized testing assistance, and mentoring initiatives for students. The project director is Laura Hamilton.

FUND 4267

2013-14: Chesapeake Experience—Community Action

Chesapeake Experience will provide a unique educational leadership opportunity for girls aged 13-17 in Hampton Roads, Virginia. Participants will attend three weekend programs with an emphasis on the Chesapeake Bay and leadership skills. The girls will design and execute a community service project relevant to the Chesapeake Bay or another environmental cause. Weekend programs will include outdoor activities, project planning, and guest speakers. Project Director is Jill Bieri, Yorktown, VA.

2013-14: Eva Kabundu—International Fellowship

Eva Kabundu is a state attorney working with the Attorney General’s Chambers, Ministry of Justice & Constitutional Affairs, Kampala, Uganda. Eva Kabundu’s study will focus on international trade, business, free trade agreements, arbitration, and human rights/gender. American University, Washington, D.C.

Where Does the Money Go?

Play a Part in the Decision-Making

Three branch members will be elected at the September branch event to serve on the branch allocations committee. This committee recommends to the branch the allocation of the net profits from the book sale. The money is allocated to AAUW Funds and other AAUW 501(c)(3) entities, local scholarships and awards, and the branch’s state and national conferences and conventions fund. This latter fund helps to fund members’ expenses when they attend AAUW conferences. The committee also recommends to the branch “Names Honored” candidates.

The committee is chaired by the AAUW Funds chair and includes, in addition to the three members to be selected, the used book sale chair(s), the STEM chair, and the local scholarship university liaisons. The time commitment involves attending one meeting, which will last approximately two hours. The committee will use guidelines contained in the branch policies (which are on our branch’s website).

As you can see, for a small amount of time and effort you can help the branch in a big way. Call Peggy Stotz, co-president, 703/734-8932 and let her know that you would like to serve on the allocations committee.

We Get Letters ...

June 10, 2014
Hello Linda,

I want to take some time out to say it was unfortunate that we were unable to meet at the NCCWSL (National Conference of College Women Student Leaders) conference this past weekend. I am so thankful that your branch was able to sponsor me to attend this conference because I would not have been able to otherwise and it was such a great experience. I met so many wonderful strong leaders and will be taking a lot of their initiatives on their campuses back to Slippy Rock University.

I did not have access to a photo printer before I sealed my thank you letter, but Daniela Bulos (another woman who the McLean branch sponsored) and I took a photo and on behalf of us both we thank you. I have attached this photo and thank you again for this fantastic opportunity.

Sincerely,
Taylor Ann Winter

Taylor Ann Winter (left) and Daniela Bulos, two of eleven students sponsored by our branch for the National Conference of College Women Student Leaders. Over 900 college women attended the conference.

"AAUW Funds"

2014-15: Fawah Akwo—International Fellowship

Fawah Akwo is a public interest law scholar at Georgetown University, and she focuses on women's human rights, technology law, and international development. She was previously a senior software engineer at Oracle America, where she developed customer relationship management web applications. Akwo is a social entrepreneur and an ardent advocate for women's education and leadership, especially in STEM fields. Georgetown University, Washington, D.C.

2013-14: Ann Mazur—American Fellowship

Ann Mazur's dissertation recovers the nineteenth-century cultural phenomenon of the parlour play, a genre that became an important outlet of theatre and acting for the Victorian woman. Her research contextualizes home theatre practices within scholarship about the Victorian public theatre, domestic space, and emergent Victorian psychology of acting. Ann has enjoyed mentoring other young women through teaching English and yoga. University of Virginia, Charlottesville, VA.

FUND 1376

2014-15: Elaine Ayo—Selected Professions Fellowships

Elaine Ayo is studying for a master's degree in statistics in the hopes of applying statistical methods and data analysis techniques to journalism. Prior to graduate school, she was a reporter and editor in Seoul, South Korea; Santiago, Chile; and her hometown of San Antonio, Texas. Georgetown University, Washington, D.C.

Again, thank you McLean Area Branch members for making these fellowships and grants possible through your continued support for AAUW Funds.

Co-chairs, AAUW Funds*

CURRENT EVENTS

Do you have a reaction when reading the daily newspaper? It seems as if there are so many events in the world that are puzzling, troubling, and complicated. Perhaps you would enjoy sharing your interest, concern, and questions with some branch members at the monthly gathering of Current Events. It is open to all branch members. You must bring an article that interests you and join in the discussions. The first Tuesday of each month at 9 a.m. we meet at Star*Nut Gourmet, 1445 Laughlin Avenue, McLean. Upcoming dates are September 2, October 7, and November 4. If you plan to attend or have questions, contact Dawn Schulz (portia11@verizon.net).

Mary Lou Melley

MORNING LIT

The Morning Lit book group meets on Friday, Sept. 12, at 9:30 a.m., to discuss Ivan Doig's novel The Whistling Season. The meeting will be in the party room at McLean House, 6800 Fleetwood Road, courtesy of Linda Regan and Suzanne Watts.

The McLean House parking procedure has changed, so attendees should park in the lot and then meet Linda in the lobby to sign in. Carpooling is advised. There may also be some street parking available. If you have parking questions, please email Linda at regan.linda@gmail.com.

Please note: Starting in October, our meetings will be held at the McLean Community Center, as usual.

GREAT DECISIONS

Some have taken the summer off but now we should all be ready to finish the remaining topics in the book.

The Tuesday morning group will meet on September 16 at the home of Mary Lou Melley and cover the last chapter, "U. S.

Connections

Trade Policy". The Thursday group meets on September 11 at noon at the home of Judy Page. They will start with chapter 6.

The new session will begin in February and I will be ordering the books in October. Let me know if you want to get in on the discounted price. After the order goes in, you will have to purchase your own book.

We welcome new members and I encourage you to attend one of the remaining meetings to sample the discussion. Please call me if you need more information.

Moving Away (but Not Far)

Long time branch member Dorothy Dibner has moved to a new address in Silver Spring to be near her daughter. Our branch owes Dorothy a big thank-you for all her years of service to our branch and especially the book sale. Over many years she spent many hours of finding, sorting, and pricing treasures for our used book sale. This year as part of her move, she donated numerous boxes of books, many of them beautiful and interesting art books. She is a gracious lady we will miss in the branch, but she would love to hear from her many friends in the branch at 301/328-0042 or the address below.
