Presidents' Message

We look forward to 2021 with hope for a better year. Americans are being vaccinated; we have a new President and Vice President; and the Georgia elections have been decided. Now the real work of 2021 begins.

AAUW National and State organizations are emphasizing Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. Our Branch meetings have reflected this theme, and our Literature groups have included books with similar subject matters. But we need to do more.

The National AAUW organization has posted a Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion toolkit, <https://www.aauw.org/resources/member/governance-tools/dei-toolkit/>. You can also find this information at aauw.org and search Toolkit. Please visit this wonderful resource to see what each of us can accomplish as individuals and as a Branch. We now have the opportunity and the tools to act and ensure that all individuals who are different from us are accepted and celebrated and given the same opportunities to realize their own potential.

Naz Basit and Carol Mournighan, Co-Presidents.

Virginia State Conference

- Monday, March 15, 3:00-5:30 pm

Directory Update

A mid-year directory update will be distributed soon. If you have any changes to your current contact information, please contact Pam Bacher at pbacher at outlook.com.

AAUW Diversity Statement

In principle and in practice, AAUW values and seeks an inclusive membership, workforce, leadership team, and board of directors. There shall be no barriers to full participation in this organization on the basis of age, disability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, geographical location, national origin, race, religious beliefs, sexual orientation, or socioeconomic status.

You can find many useful resources on our state website: <https://aauw-va.aauw.net/diversity-inclusion-equity/>.

Editors' Note

Our Branch has been informed that in order to protect our members' email addresses from being hacked, we should remove the "@" in email addresses and substitute the word "at." Whenever an email address appears in our newsletter or our website, it will be written as follows: helenday at gmail.com. Apparently, it is the "@" sign that enables hackers to access email accounts.

Simply copy the phrase into an email "To" line, replace the word "at" with the "@" sign, and remove all spaces to re-construct a usable email address.

Nominating Committee Report

The Nominating Committee, Myrtle Hendricks-Corrales (Chair), Carol Langelier, and Diana Parsell, presents the following slate of board officers for approval by the membership. Each officer will serve a term of two years beginning July 1, 2021, except for the Board Secretary who will serve a one-year term.

- Co-President: Sue Christie
- Co-Vice-President of Program: Mafalda Marrocco
- Co-Vice-Presidents of Membership: Diana Parsell and Myrtle Hendricks-Corrales
- Treasurer: Lynne Glikbarg
- Board Secretary: Betsy Reddaway

Election of new board officers will take place at the March Branch meeting.

Member Spotlight

Peggy Stotz - Our Member Who Dared to be Different

When the newsletter at Ashby Ponds, a senior living community in Ashburn, Virginia, began a four-part series on women residents who “dared to be different in their career pursuits,” it featured our Branch member, Peggy Stotz. Peggy was selected for her volunteer “career” lobbying Congress for almost 20 years as a member and chair of the AAUW Lobby Corps. She joined our Branch in 1988 and quickly became a Lobby Corps member, later serving as the chair for several years. Lobby Corp is an every Thursday commitment during the months Congress is in session.

The 1990’s proved both a challenge and a success for Lobby Corps. It included lobbying to achieve the Family & Medical Leave Act in 1993, which was during Peggy’s time as the chair. As Peggy says, it was rewarding and satisfying to represent AAUW’s issues and priorities to policymakers, especially when there were successes.

Peggy dared to be different because in the 1980’s and 90’s lobbyists were predominantly men who were paid to do the job. AAUW’s Lobby Corps and Peggy were lobbyists when Congress itself was also male dominated; and succeeded. Much of that success can be attributed to Peggy’s leadership and commitment to the Lobby Corps and AAUW. She was a role model. Peggy was succeeded as chair by Branch member Mary Lou Melley.

Thank you to Peggy for leading as a lobbyist and to Mary Lou for following in Peggy’s footsteps.

AAUW Funds

McLean Area Branch's 2020-2021 Fellowship and Grant Recipients

The McLean Area Branch awards two fellowships and two grants annually to women who have demonstrated exceptional projects or work in their designated fields. All four of these projects are funded with endowments that our Branch has set up over the years. The American Fellowship (endowed at $75,000) and the International Fellowship (endowed at $100,000) were the first established. Research & Projects Grant endowments (each endowed at $35,000) followed, which consist of the Career Development Grant for women pursuing a new career or completing one and the Community Action Grant for projects.

The two fellowships and the Career Development Grant make it possible for recipients to complete their education. The Community Action Grant is for an individual or a group to create and fund a project benefitting girls. This year there are three endowment award recipients. One of our recipients received two awards. The recipients have been asked to speak at our April Branch meeting, which will be conducted via ZOOM on April 13 at 7 pm. We look forward to hearing about the valuable work of these recipients. The 2020-2021 endowed fellowship and grant recipients are as follows:

American Fellowship Tesneem Aikiek, Ph.D., studies Islamic Law at Georgetown University. Dr. Aikiek is researching how Muslim jurists identify multiple forms of harm in marriage and divorce, focusing on emotional and sexual harm. After completing her doctoral program, she looks forward to teaching and contributing to nonprofit community research and engagement.

International Fellowship Heather Chidarara, L.L.M., Master of Law, is at Georgetown University. Chidarara's studies focus on international women's rights. Previously, she practiced as an attorney in South Africa, with experience in property law, commercial and civil litigation. Her goal is to advance the cause of women in Africa.

Research & Projects/Career Development Grants Both of these are sponsoring a student at Johns Hopkins University. Her work focuses on health care. After graduation, she aspires to serve as a health-care public-policy researcher and advocate.

From AAUW

AAUW joined with the nation's leading women's organizations in a response to the assault on the U.S. Congress, saying, 'the deadly attempt to disrupt the work of the U.S. Congress was the inevitable result of years of hateful and divisive rhetoric'. In addition, Kim Churches, the CEO of AAUW, recently communicated to members that, during the violent invasion of the Capitol, AAUW's National office, the personal safety of the staff and their families was at risk. AAUW, with gender justice and equity organizations, demanded that President Trump and his enablers be held accountable for their actions. Kim asks us to actively engage in efforts to defeat white supremacy. There is a new AAUW Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion toolkit available and A Racial and Social Justice Working Group recently established, headed by the AAUW Board Chair.

Here is the message for the new year from Kim Churches.

'Despite the global pandemic, social unrest, threats to our democracy and the worst economic downturn in decades, AAUW has stayed focused on our mission: When the COVID-19 crisis hit, our national office staff pivoted quickly to working remotely and, unlike many other nonprofits, we were able to keep our belts tightened, avoiding furloughs and layoffs. We are proud of all that our dedicated team accomplished over the past months and we look forward to what's in store for the promising years ahead.'

Below are some numbers quantifying accomplishments of AAUW in 2020, indicating what will continue in 2021.

- 142 colleges and universities, including 29 minority serving institutions and Historically Black Colleges and Universities have been offered AAUW's Start Smart training.
- 62,400 letters were sent, through the two-minute activists' program, to elected official calling for action on AAUW priorities such as comprehensive COVID-19 relief, the Voting Rights Advancement Act, the Paycheck Fairness Act, removing the deadline for the ratification of Equal Right Amendment, and more.
- $70,000 in the Legal Advocacy Fund went toward supporting five active cases.
- 65 Voter Guides on candidate positions in key federal races for the 2020 elections were produced and distributed.
- 250 recipients received nearly $3.9 million in AAUW fellowships and grants for the 2020-2021 academic year.

Members of the AAUW Lobby Corps will have had a Zoom meeting in January to discuss AAUW's priorities in the new Congressional session. It will continue to operate in a virtual environment.

Commonwealth of Virginia

The new session began January 13 and is planned to be a 30-day session. Because of COVID-19, the House will meet virtually, and the Senate will have a hybrid approach of in-person and virtual committee meetings. Some legislation to be considered include the COVID-19 response, another consideration of the budget, early voting, and teacher pay. What may be addressed, according to Delegate Rip Sullivan, include campaign finance reform, affordable housing, and health care exchange. The governor recently announced his intention to support the abolishment of the death penalty.

Denise Murden, Public Policy co-chair AAUW-VA announced that lobbying in Richmond will also be virtual. Priorities include paid sick leave and salary history bans. However, Rip Sullivan stated that paid sick leave proposals may initially include only essential workers during the pandemic.

Mary Lou Melley, Public Policy Chair

All scheduled Special Interest Group meetings will be conducted via ZOOM.
