AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN McLEAN AREA, VIRGINIA, BRANCH POLICIES

- I. PURPOSE. Policies are principles, rules, and guidelines that guide the administration of the Branch. Policies supplement, but cannot contradict, the Branch bylaws and Branch standing rules. The Bylaws and Policies Committee shall be responsible for proposing additions and changes in the policies as directed by the Board of Directors. Policies are approved by the Board.
- II. ALLOCATION OF FUNDRAISING PROCEEDS.
  - A. Allocation guidelines.
    1. The Branch allocations shall be in compliance with Internal Revenue Service (IRS) regulations and shall factor in any specific Board guidance.
    2. Net proceeds are gross receipts from fundraisers minus expenses. Expenses include donations to the organizations or persons providing facilities or assistance for the fundraisers.
    3. Of the net proceeds from fundraising projects sponsored by the Branch:
      - a. a specified amount may be set aside as seed money for future fundraisers, and
      - b. up to 50 percent of said proceeds shall be allocated to AAUW Funds or other AAUW 501(c)(3) entities.
    4. Remaining net proceeds may be allocated for (a) local scholarships and awards and (b) state conferences and leadership meetings.
    5. Net proceeds from any fundraising project organized by a special interest group or Branch committee other than the Fundraising Committee shall be allocated according to the intent of the project, its advertising, and any applicable IRS regulations.
    6. Funds raised through Amazon purchases or similar programs may be allocated for special projects designated by a vote of the Board. Lacking this guidance, allocation shall follow guidelines 3 and 4 above.
    7. All cash donations, unless otherwise specified by the donor, shall go to AAUW Funds.
    8. All earned interest on fundraising proceeds shall be used in a manner consistent with these guidelines. All interest earned on funds set aside for AAUW must accrue to those funds.
  - B. Names Honored.
    1. The principal objective of the “Names Honored” program is to recognize present and past McLean Area Branch members who have provided outstanding service to the Branch with a donation to AAUW in their name.
    2. The Allocations Committee shall recommend the “Names Honored” candidates to the Board by December 31 for final approval.
    3. A non-member may be honored in recognition of exceptional service that furthers the mission of the AAUW in the McLean area.

4. The president(s) shall be named the year following her or his term(s), irrespective of previous honoring.
5. No McLean Branch member should be honored twice unless that person becomes president or has made continuing outstanding service to the branch. Members previously honored but not meeting the criteria above may be considered again after five years have passed.
6. Branch members deceased in the previous year may be considered.
7. Although the number of honorees is not specified, the number should be strictly limited. It is possible that the Allocations Committee may wish to specify no honoree, except for the past president(s), with the donation going to AAUW in the name of the McLean Area Branch members.

III. LOCAL SCHOLARSHIPS POLICY. The McLean Area Branch of AAUW shall distribute funds raised to women students at one or more Washington metropolitan area or other accredited educational institutions and who meet the eligibility criteria.

A. Selection. The recipients shall be chosen by the schools in consultation with the Branch liaisons.

B. Criteria for eligibility for university/college recipients.

1. Recipient must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident.
2. Recipient must have had a significant break in attendance between high school and college or a break in completing college requirements.
3. Recipient must be pursuing her first bachelor's degree.
4. Recipient must have demonstrated need for financial support to attend school by submitting her Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form.
5. Recipient must have a demonstrated record of academic success.
6. Recipient must submit a one-page biography to the Branch and to the college/university stating her educational background, program of study, plans for completing her degree, how the financial support will assist her in continuing her education, and goals for the future.

C. Criteria for eligibility for Fairfax County Adult High School recipients. Funds may be distributed to a graduating senior woman from Fairfax County Adult High School.

1. Recipient must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident.
2. Recipient must have a demonstrated need for financial support to attend school by submitting her FAFSA form.
3. Recipient must have a demonstrated record of academic success through work completed at Fairfax County Adult High School.
4. Recipient must be enrolled to begin studies at an institute of higher education.
5. Recipient must submit a one-page biography to the Branch stating her educational background, program of study, plans for completing her degree, how the financial support will assist her in continuing her education, and goals for the future.

IV. LOCAL AWARDS POLICY.

A. STEM Achievement Awards. The McLean Area Branch of AAUW may distribute recognition awards in math, science, and computer science to female students in their junior year of high school at one or more McLean area high schools. These awards, known as AAUW McLean Area Branch STEM Achievement Awards, will be accompanied by a nominal cash award, up to a total of ten awards per year depending on school participation, using funds from fundraising.

1. Selection. The recipients shall be chosen by the schools in consultation with the Branch's local high school awards liaisons.
  2. Criteria for eligibility for high school award recipients.
    - a. Recipient must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident.
    - b. Recipient must have a demonstrated record of overall academic success.
    - c. Recipient must have a distinguished record of academic achievement in the field of study being recognized.
    - d. Recipient must be in her junior year of high school. Exceptions may be made to this requirement based on a school's demographics.
- B. STEM Excellence Awards. The Branch may distribute recognition awards known as AAUW McLean Area Branch STEM Excellence Awards to one student or a team of students who have excelled in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) projects by their participation in local science fairs. A nominal cash award may accompany each award using funds from fundraising.
1. Selection. Selection shall be determined by Branch judges who evaluate projects submitted to the organization sponsoring the workshop or science fair. Preference is given to projects related to engineering.
  2. Criteria for eligibility for STEM Excellence Award recipients. Criteria for eligibility shall include that the recipients must be female students from McLean area schools in their freshman, sophomore, or junior years.
- C. STEM Essay Contest Awards. The Branch may distribute awards to 7th and 8th grade students (boys and girls) who have submitted outstanding essays following the criteria and guidelines for the AAUW McLean Area Branch STEM Essay Contest. Nominal cash awards may be given using funds from fundraising.
1. Selection. Selection shall be determined by members of the Branch's STEM Essay Contest Awards Committee based on inputs from Branch members who serve as contest judges.
  2. Criteria for eligibility for STEM Essay Contest Award recipients. Criteria for eligibility shall include that the recipients be in 7th or 8th grade at a local McLean area school. The student awarded First Place must be able to attend the Branch event at which the awards are announced to read his or her essay as part of the program.
- D. Student Inclusion Recognition Awards. The Branch may distribute a recognition award to one student in his or her junior year of high school at one or more McLean Area high schools. These awards, known as AAUW McLean Area Branch Student Inclusion Recognition Awards, will be accompanied by a nominal cash award up to a total of two awards per year depending on school participation, using funds from fundraising. Students must submit a completed application form including an essay, following the criteria and guidelines for the award. The awardees will be honored at an AAUW branch meeting, at which they will be asked to describe their activities.
1. Selection. Selection shall be determined by members of the Branch's DE&I (Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion) Committee.

2. Criteria for eligibility for Student Inclusion Recognition Award recipients.

Criteria for eligibility shall include that the recipients be in their junior year at a local McLean area high school.

- V. CONTRIBUTIONS. The Branch does not make monetary contributions to other organizations, charities, or causes, except for ones that support AAUW's mission and vision.
- VI. FUNDRAISING. Fundraising at both Branch meetings and meetings of Special Interest Groups shall be confined to those projects approved by the Board.
- VII. INVESTMENT FUNDS. The Board shall approve the use of investment funds up to $500 for a single purpose. The Board shall recommend to the Branch for approval amounts over $500.
- VIII. ACCRUAL ACCOUNTING. The Branch shall use accrual accounting as its method of recording income and expenses consistent with its fiscal year beginning on July 1.
- IX. SPEAKERS. A speaker may be presented with a thank you gift or an honorarium consistent with the program budget and the policy described in Section VII. The branch may not make a contribution to a charity or organization in the speaker's name in lieu of an honorarium. Hospitality and/or transportation may be arranged at the discretion of the Branch president(s).
- X. GIFTS. Branch gifts may be presented to the outgoing president(s). Additionally, a tribute gift may be given to AAUW on behalf of the Branch to honor a member whose accomplishments deserve Branch recognition. This gift may come from Branch funds and/or individual contributions.
- XI. CONFERENCES. Since skilled committed member leaders help make AAUW more effective in achieving its mission, the McLean Area Branch offers funding support for Branch members to attend state conferences and leadership meetings. As available, funds for conferences may be allotted to offset the costs of registration, room, and travel for the current president(s) and other full-time attendees. Each fiscal year, the Allocations Committee shall determine an amount, if any, to add to the conference reserve fund. The current president(s) should receive significant reimbursement for all events attended. Any additional available funds shall be evenly divided among full-time attendees at an event, with each person receiving an amount up to but not exceeding that received by the president(s) if attending the event. Attendees who receive funds will be expected to share their learnings with the Branch. Transportation to state conferences and leaders' meetings may be paid at the same rate per mile as that established by the state.
- XII. BRANCH DIRECTORY. The Branch directory shall be compiled by the directory editor and shall be published annually by October 1. It shall include a calendar of regularly scheduled events and other information, a list of all members of the Branch Board of Directors, and the complete names, colleges, addresses, phone numbers and email addresses of Branch members in good standing. A mid-year supplement will be compiled and published by the directory editor with inputs from the treasurer(s) and membership vice president(s).
- XIII. BRANCH COMMITTEES. Branch committees shall be established for allocations, budget and finance, bylaws and policies, communications, DE&I, fundraising, program, public policy, and STEM. The membership and responsibilities of the Branch committees are provided in Appendix A. The Branch Nominating Committee is defined in the Branch bylaws. Other committees, including but not limited to hospitality, local scholarships, and membership, may be established by the Board.
- XIV. BRANCH POSITIONS. The responsibilities of the elected officers and those holding appointed positions are detailed in the job descriptions given in Appendix B.
